2013-14 CBA Changes

An open forum meeting was held at Cedarvale Lanes this spring. This meeting was open to all CBA members to attend. The focus of the meeting was to discuss any rule/format changes and to try to gain some insight into how to increase entries without decreasing integrity. The following are changes that were approved and will go into effect immediately (1st tournament of the 2013-14 season).

1. Entry fee reduced from $90 to $75.
2. Optional Qualifying entry reduced from $30 to $25
3. Membership fee reduced from $50 yearly to $25 yearly. The $10 non-member fee remained unchanged.

One of the reasons we were able to reduce fees is due to some increased sponsorship monies. We felt that we could keep a very similar prize fund while decreasing the monthly cost to the membership body. If this attempted reduction in costs is unsuccessful, we will certainly re-visit this at next year's open forum meeting.

Please remember that this is YOUR organization. We need the input from you, the competitors, at these yearly meetings. Your attendance and opinions are very important to the success of the organization.

Matt Paine goes wire to wire to win his 2nd title in the Columbia 300 sponsored CBA at Texa Tonka Lanes

Congratulations to Matt Paine for winning his 2nd CBA title on July 28th at Texa Tonka Lanes in the Columbia 300 sponsored event. 44 bowlers competed in the event, which was played out on the Kegel Pattern Broadway. The pattern played very fair and was quite demanding keeping scoring at a low pace for the normally high scoring center. Matt was the qualifying leader at +190. A cut score of only +53 was needed to make the match play and +42 was the final cashing spot. There were 2 bonus senior cashers and a bonus female casher as well.

At the end of match play, Matt continued leading and was the #1 seed going into the stepladder. Joey Robillard was the #2 seed, making his first stepladder in CBA competition. Also making their first appearance was Jared Sundin, the #3 seed, and Tim O’Ryan the #5 seed. Chad Nelson was the #4 seed rounding out the top 5.

The first stepladder match pitted Nelson against newcomer O’Ryan. A couple of tripped 4 pins in the middle of the match by Nelson, along with a costly missed 10 pin and a split in the 8th by O’Ryan gave Nelson the victory 236-180. Nelson would then meet another 1st timer in Jared Sundin. This pair gave the veteran Nelson some difficulty in carry and over-reaction, while Sundin managed a 4 bagger in the middle to cruise into a 196-166 win over Nelson. Sundin advanced to meet up with Joey Robillard in the Semi-final match. Robillard put a bunch of strikes on the board, with only 1 open, a split in the 6th, for a very nice 244 game. Sundin also put together a string of 5 in the middle, but had 2 washouts early in the game that proved to be costly as he punched out the 10th for 217, giving Robillard the win, and advancing him to the finals against Matt Paine. Robillard tried to make it a match by staying clean throughout the game, but Paine seemed quite determined to win and had the look on the lanes to do so by striking out from the 5th frame on to overcome a 3rd frame open and secure his 2nd CBA title.
