2014-15 CBA Changes

An open forum meeting was held at the Brunswick Zone, Brooklyn Park after the year end tournament. This meeting was open to all CBA members to attend. The focus of the meeting was to discuss any rule/format changes and to try to gain some insight into how to increase entries without decreasing integrity. The following are changes that were approved and will go into effect immediately (1st tournament of the 2014-15 season).

1. Entry fee increased from $75 to $100.
2. Optional Qualifying entry remains at $25
3. Membership fee remains $25 yearly. The $10 non-member fee also remained unchanged.

We discussed the removal of the January and possibly the February events due to out of state scheduling conflicts with other large money tournaments. Please follow future schedule changes in the upcoming newsletters and on our Facebook page, Twitter account and our website, www.centralbowlersalliance.com.

Please remember that this is YOUR organization. We need the input from you, the competitors, at these yearly meetings. Your attendance and opinions are very important to the success of the organization.

Same Finals, Same Result

For the second month in a row, Chad Nelson and Brady Stearns squared off in the final match, with Nelson walking away victorious both times. Last month, Chad's victory earned him the year end title and the bowler of the year honors by one point. He started the new season off just the way the last one ended...on top. Jeff Walther led the 33 person field with a score of +169. It took a score of +56 to make the top 10 field for match play, and +41 to cash. After match play finished, Brady Stearns was the top seed heading into the stepladder at +388. Nelson, Dan Bock, Sam Lantto and Scott Anderson rounded out the top 5. Anderson and Lantto had a tight match in game 1, but a chopped bucket in the 4th and a 4-6-10 in the 9th for Anderson, left Lantto with an easy 9-spares, 9 count 204-194 victory. Lantto moved on to meet Bock in the next match. Bock struggled with carry, leaving 3 10 pins throughout the game, but stayed clean. In the end, Lantto would string a 3 bagger in the 6-7-8th frames and punched out the 10th for a 225-208 victory and the right to move into the semi-finals, where last month's champion, Chad Nelson was waiting. The pair of Hall of Famers put on a good show, both staying clean for the game, Lantto with a 5 bagger coming down the stretch and Nelson with 2 doubles and a 3 bagger to tie at 237. The roll off was not quite as exciting as Lantto split in the first frame of the roll off, giving Nelson a victory of 49-37 in the tiebreaker. Chad would move on to meet the top seed, Brady Stearns in the final match. Stearns looked in charge throughout match play, shooting 300 and only losing 1 match. His first shot of the finals would set the tone, as he faced a high flush 4-9, open, to start the match. After a 10 pin in the first and a 4 pin in the second, Chad strung a 5 bagger to take a commanding lead. Stearns continued to fight and had a 6 bagger of his own to end the match, but the early split would prove to be too much to overcome. Nelson wins his 2nd consecutive title, both over Stearns, 245-234. Thanks to Robbie Lawrence and his staff at Sun Ray for hosting our event. This was the first trip to Sun Ray for the CBA, and we will definitely be back.
